Public Information Office
OFFICE OF CHIEF OF COUNSEL FOR WAR CRIMES
A/P0 595-A

27 January 1949

FOR INFORMATION OF CORRESPONDENTS:

LIST OF DEFENSE COUNSEL

"SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS" OF THE NUREMBERG WAR CRIMES TRIALS

All 177 defendants tried in the series of 12 war crimes trials held at Nuremberg following the International Military Tribunal were represented by competent legal counsel of their own choice. Some defendants had more than one counsel, and two were represented by American attorneys in addition to German counsel. (Joseph T. Robinson of New York City was counsel for Friedrich von Buelow, defendant in the Krupp case, and Warren E. Burgess of Washington, D.C. represented Ernst von Weizsaecher, a defendant in the Ministries case.)

A total of 373 German lawyers were engaged in the defense of individuals tried for war crimes. The prosecution legal staff numbered 131.

German defense counsel by cases were

Case 1 (Medical) 34
Case 2 (ditch) 2
Case 3 (Justice) 29
Case 4 (Fehl) 27
Case 5 (Flick) 12
Case 6 (Farben) 54
Case 7 (Hostaga) 22
Case 8 (Russen) 27
Case 9 (Einsatzgruppen) 46
Case 10 (Krupp) 26
Case 11 (Ministries) 67
Case 12 (High Command) 27

Total 373

*The two American lawyers who participated in the defense bring the total to 375.

This list includes only the chief counsel for all defendants, and indicates political affiliations. *Any of the defense counsel in the "Subsequent

(more —)
Proceedings also participated in the International Military Tribunal. This fact is also noted on the following list.

Main Defense Counsel listed above total 193, but due to the fact that a number of lawyers represented more than one defendant, the number of individual attorneys is 95. Of this number, 55 were members of the Nazi party, nine were members of the SA, and three held SS membership. Of the above listed attorneys 31 also represented defendants in the INR.
