1/2/04

To: Participants in Jurisprudence

From: Milner S. Ball

Re: First Assignment

We meet Tuesday at 4:30 at Legal Aid (the basement there).

You have an idea of what to expect about the course from my pre-registration description of it.

The reading will proceed chronologically beginning with material on the divine lawsuit that is the chief feature of eighth century BCE prophesy and then move to material from the "Golden Age" of Athens, Greece (Aeschylus and Socrates).

Books for the course:
1. Aeschylus, Oresteia – Grene & Lattimore eds.& trans, Aeschylus I (Chicago, 1953, 1992);

Assignments for the first three meetings:

1/13/04:

Excerpts from the 8th C. BCE prophets available from the Library electronic reserve (hereinafter LER) (pp. from The New Oxford Annotated Bible, NRSV) (includes footnotes): "Isaiah" 866 (intro.), 874-75 (chap. 6); "Hosea" 1148 (intro.), 1151-52 (chap. 4:1-10); "Amos" 1170 (intro.), 1171-74 (chaps. 1-3); "Micah" 1190 (intro.), 1191 (chap. 1:1-12), 1196-97 (6:1-16). Edith Hamilton, The Greek Way 1-34, 138-44 (LER).

1/20/04:

Edith Hamilton, The Greek Way 144-56 (LER);
Grene & Lattimore eds., Aeschylus I 1-25, 35-90 ("Agamemnon").

1/27/04